West Pennine Group of Advanced Motorists – News Release 50th Anniversary Celebrations – Discounted Courses Available Now!

Were you born in 1956? The year of ‘Memories Are Made of This’: Dean Martin, ‘See You Later Alligator’: Bill Haley and His Comets, ‘Why Do Fools Fall in Love’: Frankie Lymon and the Teenagers.

This was also the year the Institute of Advanced Motorists, was set up in order to improve driver awareness and road safety. To date, thousands of motorists in the UK have already taken the Advanced Driving Test, now you can too:

To celebrate this fantastic achievement, your local group, The West Pennine Group of Advanced Motorists, would like to offer a course of Advanced Driving, including the Test, (usual price £85), for just £50, to all those people living in our area who will celebrate their 50th birthday in 2006.

Why not do something special in your 50th year? Better still, give the course as a Birthday present, after all, being an Advanced Driver is more likely to see you achieve more and more birthdays. You can even save money on your car insurance.
